

SCHOLARSHIPS

The Local Council of Women (LCW)

in collaboration with the

Bloomington Health Foundation (BHF)

will be awarding five scholarships in 2021 to students pursuing a health care career.

One Cecelia Wahl $2,500.00 scholarship (sponsored by LCW)

Four $1,500.00 scholarships (co-sponsored by LCW and BHF)

To be eligible, you must live in one of the counties served by IU Health Bloomington Hospital—Brown, Daviess, Greene, Jackson, Lawrence, Martin, Monroe, Morgan, Orange, and Owen—and be currently enrolled in an accredited program of study in a healthcare field.

Scholarships will be awarded on the basis of the following criteria:

- Financial need
- Academic and clinical performance in the health program
- Health-related employment
- Community service
- Relevant personal experience(s)

To be considered, applications must include all of the following items:

- Applicant's name, mailing address, current phone number, and e-mail address
- Documentation of enrollment in the chosen accredited program
- Copy of grades to date (this need not be an official transcript)
- A personal statement describing your financial need, work and volunteer experience, goals for the future, and why you chose healthcare as your profession.

Applications should be postmarked by October 15, 2021, and mailed to:

LCW Scholarships (c/o S. Hegeman)

P.O. Box 6171

Bloomington, IN 47407

The LCW Scholarship Committee will select the scholarship winners in November and present the scholarships at the LCW Annual Meeting, to be held this year on December 8, 2021. Winners will be notified two weeks before the presentation of the award.

Questions can be addressed to: hegemans@indiana.edu.